

Keep These Traits For Assured Failure

by Count Marco

It has come to my attention as all things that concern you eventually do—that almost all you American women who fail in marriage have more or less the same traits.

The No. 1 indication that you are on the skids and heading for a tumble on the wrong side of the bed is tenseness and loose emotions. You're the jumpy type, jumping every time he moves or opens his mouth.

With this goes hand in hand a sliding scale of moods. When everything goes your way you're singing in the rain, your voice way up there in the deliriums of happiness. But let something not be to your absolute liking and the voice turns to a whining nasty snarl.

This type of woman is dumped in no time.

Another type of unsuccessful female ready to be ground up in the divorce mill is the woman inclined to be irritable and dictatorial. She barks orders constantly like some balcony-addicted dictator until finally, through sheer exhaustion and to keep her mouth shut, he carries them out.

Watch it if you suffer this disease. Otherwise you'll suffer the same fate as all other dictators.

Be on guard, also, if you discover you're striving for a wide circle of acquaintances, preferring to impress outsiders more than you do your beast. What you really want is to be important rather than liked. You get your little old heart's desire in the end. Poor you.

Psychologists say, too, that you divorcees get that ex'ed look because you're egocentrics. You always think of yourself until eventually that's all you have to think about—there's no one else around.

And finally, there is a sign I observe that tips me off long before even he knows he's going to relegate you to the bar stools on your second husband hunt.

That is if, during any discussion of politics, religion, or social ethics, your voice is raised on high and loud. You're opinionated and narrow-minded and don't care who knows it.

Oh, you poor thing. What do you gain but lonesomeness by being so bull-headed?

So think it over. Do you have any of these untouchable traits? Let it be no consolation to you to know there are many more additional reasons why you girls wind up on the wrong side of the bed every morning—which is both sides if you don't have a husband in it.
